At a time when meanness and “likes” on social media seem to be prevailing over meaningfulness and joy, we intentionally anchored the 10-Year Anniversary Celebration of the Rising Young Women Professional Conference in the theme: “In Pursuit of My Meaningful Life”.

It is our hope that your company will partner with us as we curate an impactful experience designed to stir meaning by exposing attendees to influential leaders who have made it their mission to live a purpose-driven life.

“Every day, you have the power to choose our better history.”

—FORMER FIRST LADY MICHELLE OBAMA
